

AWARDS & HONORS

Congratulations!

Steven Chabarria, a junior from the Diocese of Tyler, was honored by the University of Dallas Student Government as the Senator of the Year. As chair of the Religious Concerns Committee, Steven played a key role in communicating concerns regarding faith on campus to the office of Campus Ministry.

The evaluation faculty of Holy Trinity Seminary has bestowed The Very Reverend Thomas M. Cumiskey, O.P., Memorial Award for Excellence in Philosophy & Letters to Alex Fry of the Diocese of Dallas. This award is given as merited to a graduating Philosophy & Letters seminarian who has demonstrated the highest level of performance in the classroom by achieving a 3.7 cumulative GPA at the end of his penultimate semester and who passes his thesis with distinction. Alex was also inducted into Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's oldest and most respected undergraduate honors organization. Members are selected on the basis of having demonstrated broad cultural interests, scholarly achievement, and good character.

Seminarians Joseph Blackburn, Alex Fry, Zachary Muldrow, Raymond Pendleton, Thomas Swierc and Matthew Tadyshak will now continue their theologate studies and formation at seminaries chosen for them by their sponsoring bishops after having received a B.A. degree in Philosophy & Letters from the University of Dallas.

Kevin Kolker, Matthew Krusleski, Patrick Magistrado, Isaac Oviedo, Greg Schettini and Francis Vu - having already completed their undergraduate degrees prior to entering seminary - have successfully completed their pre-requisite hours in philosophy, undergraduate theology and language through the UD Pre-Theology Program.
