

Dear Friends,

Our Lenten Journey begins today. Click here for a video reflection from seminarian Mark Williard.

Beginning today and through Divine Mercy Sunday, we will post a reflection based on that day's readings. Written reflections will be posted to our Facebook page each Monday - Saturday; and on Sundays, video reflections will be posted. We pray that these reflections will strengthen your personal journey.

If you don't use Facebook, you may contact Sylvia Najera at snajera@holytrinityseminary.org to let her know you'd rather receive these reflections via email.

We look forward to praying for you and with you as together we accompany Jesus on his journey to the Cross.

In Christ,

The Seminarrians of Holy Trinity Seminary
