

Father James Swift, C.M.

After serving as Rector of Holy Trinity Seminary for 8 years, Father Swift will be leaving us at the end of the semester to join the seminary faculty at St. Mary's Seminary in Houston, where he will serve as a resident full-time spiritual director.

We are grateful to Fr. Swift for his many years of service to Holy Trinity Seminary. Please keep him in your prayers as he continues his ministry in priestly formation.

Father Vincent Anyama

Bishop Burns has appointed Father Anyama as the next Rector of Holy Trinity Seminary, effective July 1. Father Anyama, an alumnus of Holy Trinity Seminary's Class of 2004, is currently serving the seminary as Vice Rector.

Please join us in congratulating Father Anyama in his new role, and please keep him in your prayers during this time of transition.

As part of their formation, each year the seminarians visit a parish belonging to one of the Eastern Catholic Churches to familiarize themselves with and grow in appreciation of the various Catholic Churches of the Roman Catholic Church.

On Sunday, March 20, the seminarians visited St. Thomas the Apostle Syro-Malabar Catholic Church in Garland. The Syro-Malabar Church, which traces its roots to St. Thomas the Apostle arriving in India in AD 50, established this parish, its first parish outside of India, in Garland in 1992.

In addition to celebrating the Holy Qurbana (Mass) with the St. Thomas community, the seminarians were greeted warmly and treated to a traditional Indian meal.
