

LIFE OF A _____+ SEMINARIAN

AROUND CAMPUS

March has been a busy month for the seminarians. In addition to studying for and taking their mid-term exams, the seminarians hosted two Come and See weekends before leaving for spring break. Participation in intramural volleyball with students from the University of Dallas is also keeping many of the seminarians busy.

In observance of Lent, several house practices have been incorporated into the seminarians' weekly formation schedule, including communal daytime prayer, praying the Divine Mercy chaplet, and Stations of the Cross. The seminarians are also observing Monastic (silent) Meals on Monday evenings. For almsgiving, the seminarians are holding a clothes drive and participating in a rice bowl project, as well as raising funds by paying twice as much for items they purchase in the seminarian-run Hobo Hut (student store) in order to donate the extra funds to a local charity.

As part of their formation, each year the seminarians visit a parish to familiarize themselves with and grow in appreciation of the universality of our Church. Last Sunday, March 19, the seminarians visited St. Joseph Vietnamese Catholic Church in Grand Prairie, where they were warmly greeted by the parish community. In addition to celebrating Mass with the community, the seminarians were treated to a homemade meal featuring traditional Vietnamese cuisine. The photo above is from their trip to St. Joseph parish.

The seminarians leave this afternoon for a weekend of recollection. Please keep them in prayer.
